THIS ECHO 1971
IS DEDICATED TO NED O. WHETSTONE

At times, a dedication of this kind is thought to be given just for teaching skills or active service, but actually it is more than that. Dedication is a whole life — a life spent in the education of our students and an overall improvement of our nation. Mr. Whetstone not only teaches Problems of Democracy, but he lives his life as a constant example to others who might learn and follow his actions.

“Seniors
Got Spirit”

CLASS OF 1971

OFFICERS

Pam Scritchfield, Deena Easter, Mary Martin, Jane Moorehead

Today many students tend to forget the flag and the "republic for which it stands." This, I believe, may be the result of lack of interest, direct contact, and involvement. But, as we Seniors approach the termination of our secondary education, many of us see the important part our country will play in our future. As we step from our well-guarded, dominated lives of "now" into a completely different atmosphere, I'm sure many issues we shun today will suddenly become enhanced reality.

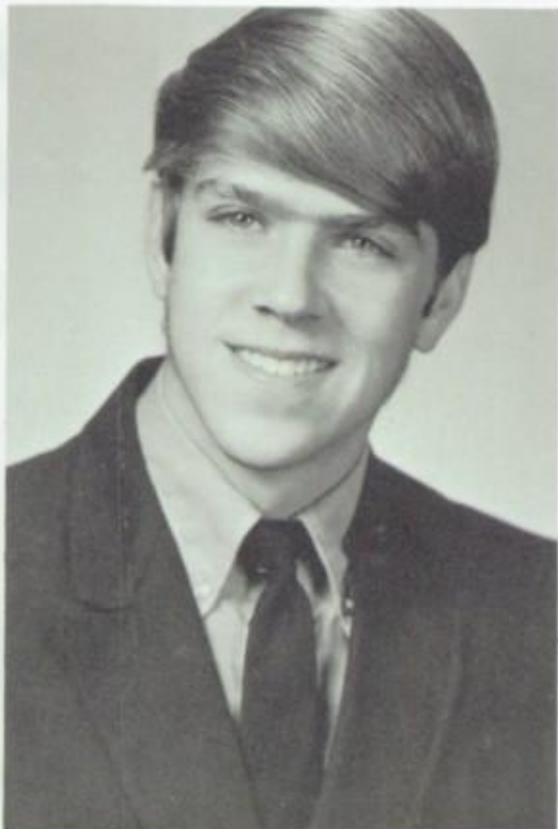

Thus, we end our final year believing in a job "well-done," and hoping to extend our knowledge and experiences beyond another horizon.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

you were the littlest kid around.
you dropped your books right in the middle of the hall and your papers scattered everywhere.
that announcement was made concerning "necking" in the halls.
Mrs. Snyder missed her first and only day.
five boys got sent to the office for fishing in room 109's goldfish bowl.
"waterboy" gave speeches in English.
the tears and cheers when we won District Basketball.
Mr. Townsend showed you "his" toilet seat.
you didn't get your homework done and you padded your pants with towels so Mr. Hood's paddling wouldn't hurt — Susie.
"Super Strayer" had mistletoe in his back room.
you dodged flying food in the lunch room food battles.
the "South was to rise again."
a certain seat in Mrs. Smoke's reading class got wet.
the girls' basketball team went 4-0.
the gas was accidently turned on in Mr. Hennessey's science class.
we smeared Westmont.
we almost forgot that "one brief shining moment — Camelot."
you skipped just because you wanted to skip.
the Boswell wrestling meet almost turned into a riot.
Mr. Brown called Guy a girl.
The B.H.S. band "turned off" Niagara Falls.
you watched those "16mm sound film presentations." starring Dr. H. Burrrooey.
you died on the spot when certain coaches caught you talking to "their players," girls.
our Senior float was referred to as "Communitic and Atheistic."
"Ernie" made his "last stand" in the lunchroom — Right Jeff and Kirk!
everyone wore "shark bands" and "yard rings."
the bell tones were made louder due to Lee's early dismissal bell.
Mr. Kolander ate lifesavers and used sign language.
Dave Kuhns played his "drum" part.
Royce's Raiders Really Rated.
we sang "Hey Lawdy, lawdy" on the bus rides.
Stanley Bollman tried to drive on two wheels.
nearly everyone lost his contact lens in "Uncle Vernie's" room.
the alarm clocks sounded on April Fool's day.
Dan Ford saved the entire school from doom, then the world.
we got off school because of the bomb threats.
Mr. Topper, well known T.V. star, sang "Folsom Prison Blues."
we had that assembly about short clothes.
you got killed playing murder ball.
you girls in Section 77 and 78 took your first shower and afterwards couldn't find certain unmentionables.
our tenth grade class party with lighted coke bottle candles.
we prayed to Allah.
we received those "little bottles" from the Health room.
we made our great hoagies — gum and all.
you had water pipettes battles in chemistry lab.
All the restrooms were locked.
Kathy played Portia and Mark played Bassanio.
All the boys in 74 were sent to the office.
we sang "Folk songs in American History."
we harassed Harrisburg.
"Senior" was a title you thought you could never attain.

OFFICERS

Soon another school year will come to an end and with it our fifth year at Bedford High School. This year will always hold many memories for our class; football games, which include twirling, cheering, and most of all participating in the game itself, getting our driver's license, receiving our class rings, participating in the chorus musical, and organizing the best hoagie sale yet. From our hoagie sale we plan to have a great prom.

We have people representing us in almost every activity that the school provides and we are extremely proud of this. We hope that next year we are still represented in this way and that we can make the best of our Senior year.

Here we are at the start of our first year of senior high school. The title of "Junior High" has passed, and we have taken part in the new activities we find in senior high. We have done well in giving the Class of '73 a good name. But more important, in our next two years, we will make B.H.S. even more proud of us.

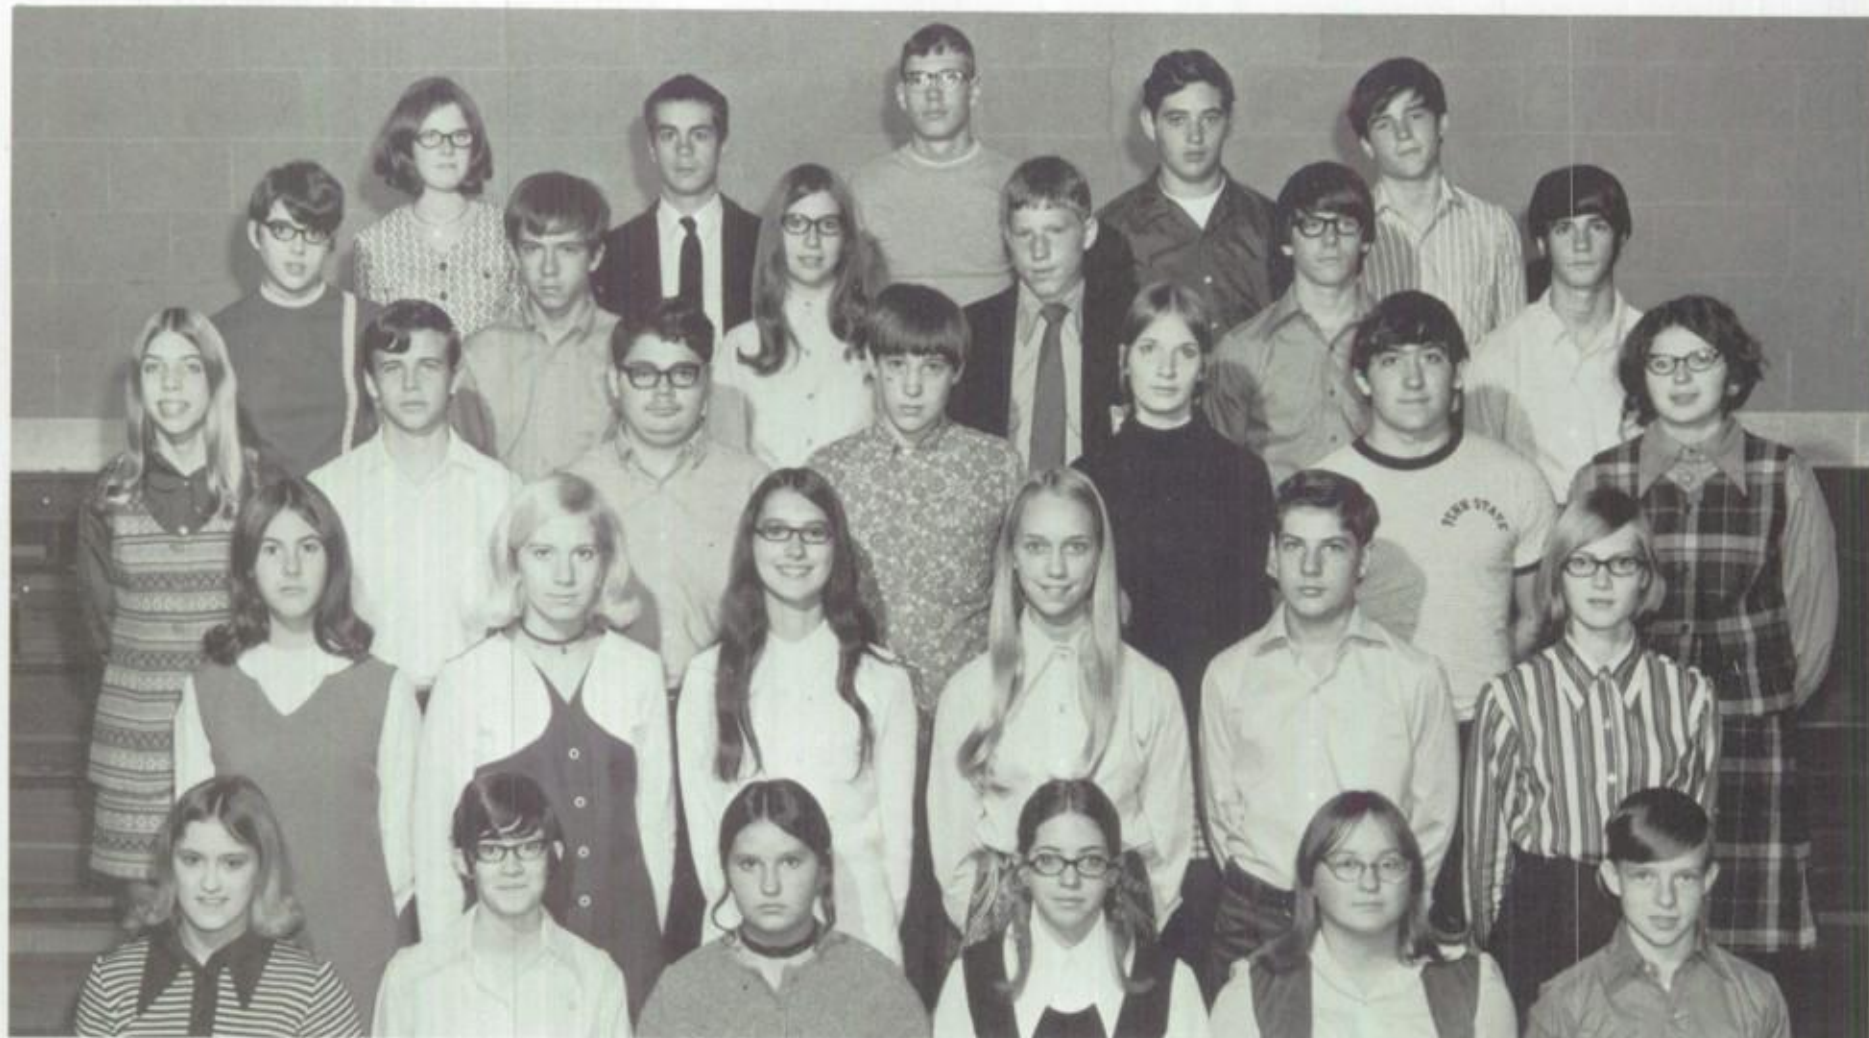

This year we have worked hard for good grades, success in sports, and a worthwhile school year. This contributed to the making of a very successful sophomore year. With the same attitude, we will be able to make our Junior year even better.

We have many important dreams and events we hope will become a reality; and these next two years will determine if they will happen. With much hard work and determination we will be sure of a meaningful school life and a very rewarding future in life to come.

Well, here we are, the Class of '74, and almost halfway through B.H.S.

This year we have something new in sports for Junior High. In addition to a football and a basketball team we also have a wrestling team.

Now that we're Freshman, we have to begin thinking about what we plan to do after high school. We can only hope that with the help of our parents, our teachers, and our classmates, we can take our rightful places in society.

OFFICERS

After taking that giant step last year, we are back again, losing the title of "Seventh Graders". We, "The Class of 1975," are exploring the outer space of education a little more each year as we take another step, farther away from our rocket and closer to the day when we will be called "Seniors."

After attending Bedford High School for a year, we have become accustomed to this strange new planet and many of us have begun to take part in and enjoy numerous activities, such as: Junior High Student Council, Band, Twirling, Cheerleading, Football, Basketball, and Wrestling.

Our generation will have many problems to face and with the education we receive at B.H.S., I am sure we will be able to conquer these, one by one.

OFFICERS

John Miller, Karen Kauffman, Kerry Marshall, David Hawley

There is a new spirit in Bedford High this year. It is the spirit of '76 and it comes in the form of the seventh graders. This Bicentennial year class brings together boys and girls who were born as the exciting '50's came to a close. The year we graduate, our nation will celebrate its 200th birthday. We think this presents us with a special challenge.

Just as the early pioneers left their mark on the face of our country, so we are challenged to leave our mark, to influence, as best we can, the future of this great union. We must rely on our knowledge of modern science and facts to face this new era. We are to be the people who will help mold and change our nation. We are ready and we are determined to succeed. We are the Class of '76.

VERNON WOHNHAS

Quite often, in our rush from school day to school day, we fail to really "see" our teachers. They are more than just someone to keep order in the class and lecture for forty-five minutes. They are normal people who have gone to school many years to prepare themselves to ready us for our future lives. Once you look behind the teacher figure of "chalk, books, and paddles," you can find someone who has dedicated himself to the teaching profession, and above all to his students. Yes, a teacher is a unique kind of person; not only is he a guide, leader, and counselor, but also a friend.

MISSION IMPOSSIBLE?

Though it seemed as a mission that would be impossible, the staff of this Echo has produced these 160 pages in order to remind all of the fond memories of Bedford High School. Now with sad hearts, we seniors bid a fond farewell to the past six years of memories, emotions, and experiences. For some, the way was long and hard — for others, very easy — but for all it probably has been the most valuable years of their lives.

To many, this yearbook holds much happiness that will linger in its pages and in their hearts as they look back in future years. Sure, it was hard work, but the staff enjoyed it because it gave them the satisfaction of restoring cherished memories to all the students of this school.
